What Is All That Fuzz About The Angry Birds Knock On Wood Game?

By Joshua J Anderson

When it comes to finding the right Christmas gift it is sometimes hard to latch on to the right trend, the new angry birds knock on wood game is certainly one of the hottest gift trends this year.

Angry Birds: Knock on Wood Game, Perfect for All Ages

This game is one of the best games for all age groups for several reasons, the first and possibly most important is that these games are easy and have a straight forward premise that is easy to follow. Rather than having a complicated series rules for children to try to follow, this game is easy to follow and fun for just about everyone. Because the game is easy to follow, you can play with your whole family. Since the game is simply structured you can play with the directions that are provided or create your own obstacles and play freely.

Angry Birds: Knock on Wood Game Rules and Missions

The game is based on the popular phone and video game that is getting even more popular every single day. The game offers a slingshot launching system much like the original game and offers a series of missions that go along with each level or round. The board game is simple, you place a series of obstacles or courses with the provided blocks and pigs. When you have your course set up you can launch your birds and try to knock down the structure.

Each level has new missions that you need to complete in order to score the most points and win the game. When it comes to finding the perfect Christmas gift it isn't always about finding the present that is most in line with popular trends. Finding the right game is all about finding a game or toy that fits your child. Finding a great site that can help you reason through all the trends and popular toys of the season is a great way to make sure that you are getting the toy that is right for you. Angry Birds: Knock on Wood game is a great option for families that want a game that anyone can play and that is fun for the whole family. Again, if you ask me what is all that fuzz about the Angry birds game, I can summarize it saying that this is an easy to play, it is fun and it is educational game, which means this game has the main component to make it the perfect gift to your kids.

Beyblade Metal Fusion: A Great Wave of Merchandise Items And Video Games

By Joshua J Anderson

A Japanese manga production that began running as a TV anime in April 2011, Beyblade Metal Fusion is the third installment of the famous series written by Takafumi Adachi. It has a total of 32 episodes with 29 of these released so far. The original manga pertaining to this installment is contained within the nine-volume series originally running in 2007. This manga is published by Shogakukan through the CoroCoro magazine. It is a unique mix action adventure, fantasy, sports, and comedy.

Beyblade Metal Fusion plot

This installment follows the adventures of a Beyblader named Gingka Hagane. The main protagonist is on a quest for rediscovering his hidden past. Along his journey, he has fought many exciting Beyblade battles and met Kenta Yumiya who would become his best friend. Former villains named Tategami and Benkei from the Face Hunters group who appeared in the previous installment turned to the good side and accompanied Gingka to his journey towards dismantling the Dark Nebula Organization. The main antagonist who is affiliated with this evil organization is identified as Tsubasa Otori, a highly skilled Beyblader.

Video games and merchandise items based on Beyblade Metal Fusion

The manga series inspired a number of video games and merchandise items aimed towards young children who are truly fascinated with the TV show adaptation.

A total of six video game adaptations are based on the series released for Japanese-owned consoles. Hudson Soft exclusively published these titles beginning in 2009. Metal Fight Beyblade was released in March 2009 for the Nintendo DS which features two-player mode connected via Wi-Fi. In the same year, the electronic entertainment company released the Beyblade: Metal Fusion game title that featured 17 characters with over 20 beys to choose from. Voice commands are also enabled in this release through the integrated DS microphone. Other releases include Beyblade: Metal Masters Black Susanow and Nightmare Rex.

Beyond the basic system, the latest toys in the series comprise six unique parts that throw in more excitement into the battle. Improved bottom performance tip makes the toy spin longer increasing its stamina, attack, as well as defense. These toys have brought amazing reviews from consumers, who mentioned that playing with Beyblade Metal Fusion is fun to battle it out, trying different strategies to keep your Beyblade up longer. Beyblade Metal Fusion has truly found a niche in children entertainment with the successful series as well as merchandise toys and video games.

Lego Batman Game For Kids

By Joshua J Anderson

Lego batman is another one of the delightful transformations of a well known story and its characters into the Lego universe. Lego has managed to take popular favorite Batman and turn it into a fun and exiting experience for all the family.

The game was developed by Travellers Tales, and it is available on many different consoles such as, Xbox 360, PlayStation 2, PlayStation 3, PlayStation Portable, Microsoft Windows, Wii, Nintendo DS, and Mac OS X.

What is Lego Batman?

Lego batman is a third-person, adventure video game based on the comic book character Batman. The game allows you to play solo or in cooperative mode, and it includes many characters, both heroes and villains, such as Batman, Robin, Bane, Harley Quinn, Riddler, The Joker, Penguin, Cat Woman and many more memorable faces.

What's it About?

The game takes the player through an exciting storyline which sees all the criminals, including batman's enemies, in Gotham's Arkham asylum escape and break off into groups to cause trouble and commit crimes all throughout the city. There are three groups of villains which Batman and Robin must defeat, and each group is led by one of Batman's notorious enemies. One is led by Penguin, one is led by the Joker and one is led by the Riddler and each has their own evil agenda. Each group leader is followed by a group of thugs who must also be defeated. As Batman and Robin the player, or players, have to defeat each group and send them back to the asylum.

What's Lego Batman Like?

The player gets to play in third-person perspective and the main tasks include fighting enemies, collecting studs (Lego money), and solving puzzles. The game offers other cool features including, the ability to change Batman and Robins outfits, and the opportunity to play the game through as the villains. Once the player has completed the story mode, they will unlock a mode called 'free play'. Free play lets the player go back to any chapter of the story they have completed as any character.

Lego Batman is an easy game, yet its puzzle-solving nature does present players with a little bit of a challenge, making it the perfect present for children. With so many different characters, the option to play the story as a villain, and so many activities to do on Lego Batman, it can be played over and over.

LEGO City Games: The Perfect Christmas Gift

By Joshua J Anderson

LEGO City games can be a perfect Christmas gift for children of all ages, from nursery toddlers to kids in their preschool ages. Christmas is incomplete without gifts, especially for children. But choosing a gift for a child can sometimes become a very confusing job indeed. With the wide range of choices that LEGO City games offer, you can easily find something suitable for every child. Let us know more about LEGO City.

What is LEGO City?

This LEGO game comprises of a set colorful plastic bricks and miniature figures that can be interlocked using the gears and other parts, which usually come along with the set of blocks. These construction toys can be used to build up different play objects, from chairs and tables to buildings, robots and vehicles. Most of these play models are working models. The perfection with which each of these blocks fits into another one is commendable. The plastic that is used to manufacture these building blocks is strong but at the same time safe for usage by younger kids.

Why do people like it?

This is one of the top construction games for kids today. The reason why you should buy it is because of its dual benefit. On one hand, it is loved by children and they enjoy playing with it. Thus it keeps them busy and entertained for long durations. Secondly, it promotes creativity and develops the thinking and imaginative part of your child's brain. Your child will be making something, creating something new using his own skills and brain. As the psychology behind these toys says, this can be a very good impetus for the development of your child's brains.

These LEGO games come in a wide variety of themes and sets. LEGO relies more on its original characters and the older, classic themes but there are many popular and latest themes like Star Wars, Avatar, Ben 10, Sponge Bob, Harry Potter, Cars, and Spiderman etc. too. These themes attract children and keep them engrossed in the game. In addition to this, there are the new LEGO City video games, board games and books too for the greater fans of LEGO City.

LEGO City toys are priced differently and the price increases with the increase of the size of the game. Gift this LEGO to kids or buy it for your own child this and initiate their entry to a new world of imagination and creativity.

Lego Indiana Jones Sets Make Great Christmas Toys

By Joshua J Anderson

Parents looking for fun toys to give their boys for Christmas will find the Lego Indiana Jones sets packed with adventure. Lego building sets have been around for many decades and have been loved by boys of all ages. The ability to build castles, stores, vehicles and have small characters to interact within the buildings makes these sets very appealing to kids.

Lego Indiana Jones Ambush in Cairo

The ambush in Cairo set contains seventy-nine pieces with some of them being small objects. The objects include a frying pan, sword, club and even a green apple. The set allows the child to create an Egyptian market place setting.

The market is enhanced with items such as a small stand and a wagon with wheels that actually move. In addition to the basic building blocks and object accessories, this Lego Indiana Jones set includes four Lego figures.

Of course it comes with the hero Indiana Jones, but there is also Marion Ravenwood, a Cairo swordsman and a warrior. The various figures allow kids to create all kinds of adventures using the different buildings and objects from this set.

Lego Indiana Jones and the Chauchilla Cemetery

Another set parents can choose to give their children for Christmas is the Battle in Chauchilla cemetery. This set contains one hundred and eighty-seven pieces, which allow the kids to build all sorts of different items from this battle. There are gravestones, temple ruins, cobwebs and treasure chests. There is even a motorcycle designed to hold one of the Lego characters.

The characters included in this Lego Indiana Jones set are Indiana, Mutt Williams, one skeleton and two warriors. This set also contains several additional objects as accessory pieces to help kids create various adventures. Some of these pieces include the famous crystal skull, weapons, goblets and a scorpion. This is where the crystal skull is hidden, so children can have fun trying to uncover its whereabouts while battling the enemies in the area

Parents interested in getting some of the Lego adventure sets for their children can find a wide assortment of products at online stores. These sets are designed to keep kids entertained for many hours and can be taken apart and rebuilt time and time again. Because they contain small parts they are not recommended for children under the age of seven. The assorted buildings, objects and characters found in the Lego Indiana Jones sets are sure to please any child looking for adventure.

Is Lego Ninjago A Good Gift For Your Kids?

By Joshua J Anderson

The holidays are coming closer and all of the little boys have their eyes on Lego Ninjago. Boys spend a lot of their time using their imaginations to create dream worlds of fun and possible future. Lego has remained on the cutting edge of providing the tools a boy needs to exercise his creativity. A large portion of a boys play involves things that they wish to do when they get older. Some what to be police, some firefighters but a less practical yet very common planned career path is that of a ninja. The Ninjago series provides a way to let these feelings out.

Lego Ninjago Product Reviews

There is a lot of positive feedback on this product and very few negative comments about it. Reviews rave about how it combines the building power of Lego with the battling aspect that kids have come to love. Although a few reviews claim that it is overpriced it is generally agreed that if so, not by much. They say that it has a lot of playing potential. One review calls it the best set by Lego since Bionicle. Overall a great toy with a lot of thought put behind it.

Lego Ninjago Features

As is the case with most Lego themes, the Ninjago series has a number of different kits and features that are available. There are multiple kits, a video game and, of course, a number of other related products. The real magic is in the kits. Not only does it contain the building ingenuity that has come to be expected from Lego, there is an involved battle aspect. The kits includes spinner parts so that various characters can practice the art of spinjitsu. Spinning the characters at each other like tops, the goal is to knock down the opposing character.

For many reasons this is an amazing toy. The building aspect is always fun. Of course there is the imagination that is put into creating the world that these characters live out their adventures. In a way the child playing with these toys become part of the adventures. The battling bring in a factor that is incorporated into a great many of the toys today. This allows for a relatively non-violent way for young boys to release their aggressions and need for rivalry. Overall this is a great product. The Lego Ninjago set is a great addition to any boy's holidays.

Is Lego Star Wars 3 The Best Gift For Your Kids?

By Joshua J Anderson

Lego Star Wars 3 is the perfect gift to give especially since Christmas is fast approaching and it's the perfect season for gift giving! Kids are kids and they will always want to receive gifts and toys from those close to their heart. If you are having problems with what to and not to buy, consider your problem solved! I happen to come across this site that advertises the most popular gifts for kids this season, and mind you, the number of toys is more than you can ever imagine. In the said site, you can browse through pages that will unravel the mysteries of gift choosing 101. There are different categories like top gifts for boys, top gifts for girls, toddlers and preschoolers and most popular Christmas gifts all available in the market and that is how I came to know about the Lego Star Wars 3. Prices varies significantly so you can choose the toys that are budget friendly and of maximum quality but I really recommend Lego Star Wars 3 since it encompasses durability, affordability, and quality. If you are still having problems what to choose and quite unsure whether or not it's the perfect gift for you to give, let me give you some guidelines which will aid you in choosing the best Christmas gift for your special little one.

Lego Star Wars 3: Durability and Practicality

If you prefer to give toys which are extravagant and a little luxurious, think again. Kids play with toys - and here, play means throw, toss and even break. So if you can't afford to see your lavish present being torn down, pricey toys won't be your choice. On the other hand, you might as well consider picking something which will be more budget friendly with the same level of excitement the toy will bring to your recipient. Take the LEGO Star Wars 3 for example. It is simple yet very fascinating and will be enjoyed ultimately by you and your receiver. If you're afraid of your gift being thrown and tossed into the air, it's quite alright since Lego Star Wars 3 was really made to disassemble itself and reform with the aid of your addressee's little hands.

Quality and Child-friendly

Stop thinking that Lego Star Wars 3 is only for the boys. As a matter of fact, girls enjoy playing with Lego as much as the boys do and the Star Wars 3 will make it more attractive to their little eyes. Another thing that you should consider is the quality of the toy you wish to give. You sure do not want to give a toy she or he will enjoy spending time playing the entire December and crying because it smashed and got broken the entire January. Be practical and most especially economical.

If we have the same way of thinking, LEGO Star Wars 3 is the best gift for you to give. Don't hesitate to browse and who knows? Maybe your special gift is just some clicks away.

The Deluxe Magnetic Responsibility Chart For Kids Of All Ages

By Joshua J Anderson

Whether your child is leaving the toddler stage or is in the pre-teen years the Melissa & Doug deluxe magnetic responsibility chart is a great gift idea.

It also makes a unique present for aunts, uncles, and grandparents to give. There are many benefits of using a chart to track chores and daily routines. Kids will not have an excuse when their requirements are spelled out and organized by the day. They will always know what they need to do and when they need to do it.

Parents can use the chart to determine if rewards should be given or if kids have earned special privileges. When kids hear reminders over and over they tend to tune parents out. Having a special place to remind them of what they should be doing eliminates the need for constant reminders.

The product features a wood base and a magnetic surface for placing the responsibility and reward tags in the right place. It also includes a dry erase board. The board can be used for chores that are not listed or for motivational messages. It is adaptable to many different family situations.

Though the product is aimed toward younger children it can be used to communicate with older kids. The dry erase board will allow for specialized reminders. Many of the message magnets are applicable to both younger and older children. It is helpful for teaching younger kids to stick to a routine or schedule and may make doing some of the required activities more fun, when children compete with each other or try to earn points.

The product is designed as a case that opens and closes. It can be stored on a shelf and opened at the end of the day to record completed tasks. It can be opened and hung on a wall for families with multiple children. This is a good idea for families to keep track of the completed tasks without losing any of the parts of the kit.

Having a dry erase board means changing messages will be simpler and there is no water required for a clean surface. The product comes with a handle so it can be taken on trips or vacations. It can even go to grandma's house if kids are spending a few days away from home. The product is reasonably priced at under $20 and can be purchased online. It makes an excellent gift or a handy tool for moms and dads.

Why Girls Want Lalaloopsy Dolls

By Joshua J Anderson

Girls like lalaloopsy dolls because of their look. The figures are very different from typically babies on store shelves. They are plastic with floppy arms and legs and a slightly over-sized head with button eyes incorporated.

This is what makes them so adorable. The larger head lets their personalities show and gives them plenty of character. They look like a cross between a rag doll and an animated cartoon character.

Features of lalaloopsy dolls

The figures are made entirely of plastic. They come with plastic hair and with changeable plastic outfits. Each character comes with a themed outfit to enhance the individual personality. However, there are outfits sold separately for more variety. Each character has a very unique personality and comes with different accessories. Dot Starlight comes with a red bird. Tipsy Tumbelina comes with her own white terrier dog with a bow. Bea spells-a-lot comes in a plaid jumper, high top tennis shoes, and a pet owl. Mittens fluff N stuff comes in a blue polka dot skirt, a padded vest over her shirt and a plump pet that could be whatever a girl wants it to be. Jewel Sparkes comes in a glittery pink and rose dress with a matching crown, and a pink kitty as a companion. Each of the lalaloopsy dolls weighs less than three pounds so they can be played with by younger and older girls. The figures are about 14 inches in length.

Advantages of lalaloopsy dolls

Because they are made of hard plastic the figures can be easily washed with mild soap and water. There is no need to put them in the washer though the clothes may be hand washed. They do not tear or come apart like other types of dolls. Durability is an excellent feature for a younger girl who may drop or throw the item. Many buyers mention the ease in changing outfits, unlike other dolls that require bending arms or legs to get clothing on.

Some additional thoughts about lalaloopsy dolls

Some parents may find the products a little on the expensive side especially if they want the full set of dolls. They can be found in most retail stores and are readily available in online toy stores. Most of the easier to find characters cost no more than other dolls. Though they are not soft and cuddly girls enjoy lalaloopsy dolls due to their appearance and lively personalities.

Providing Children With Many Hours Of Fun: The Fisher-Price Imaginext Space Shuttle And Tower

By Joshua J Anderson

Any parent or grandparent who has set aside time for examining the various Christmas gifts for kids should take a look at the Fisher-Price Imaginext space shuttle and tower.

The boy or girl who has received such a toy as a present can look forward to many hours of fun. Even children as young as two have been known to spend countless hours enjoying this exciting new plaything.

Children like to place the toy's two figures in the tower's elevator, and to have that pair ride to the top of an impressive and towering piece. Then the same youngsters get a thrill from having those two figures enter the shuttle's cockpit. Of course, that fun activity follows a series of equally exciting maneuvers.

For example, the crane that goes next to the shuttle can rotate. Therefore, a child can pretend that the time for a launch is approaching. He or she can have the crane rotate away from the rocket. Moreover, he or she is able to detach it from the towering piece next to it. In that way, a boy or girl has a chance to set the stage for the next round of action.

That next stage incorporates a blinking of the shuttle's lights and a sounding of the noises that are associated with an actual takeoff. Often young boys and girls like to countdown the seconds until that liftoff will take place. Those young fellows and those little ladies welcome the opportunity to practice that skill.

All those exciting changes take place after a child has pressed the appropriate button. He or she will cause the rocket's wings to pop out. He or she will be ushering in yet another opportunity to re-create the world of an astronaut.

That youngster can hold the shuttle's arm, as it flies through an imaginary space. He or she can have the solar panels open and close. He or she can have the crew land on the moon or some other extra terrestrial body. At that point, the two figures can explore the imaginary terrain.

A review of posted testimonials reveals the thrills experienced by the young people who have played with this toy. Only one mother shared with Internet users a complaint from her daughter. That girl had joined her twin brother, as he let the Imaginext fire up his imagination. She objected to the fact that this modern-day plaything lacked a female astronaut.

The Vtech Sit-To-Stand Learning Walker Makes A Great Baby Gift

By Joshua J Anderson

The Vtech - sit-to-stand learning walker is an excellent gift for a baby who is crawling and learning to walk. It is not a device to sit on. It is a four wheels push cart that comes loaded with activities.

The product is made of hard plastic with four wheels for balance. It includes a handle so it can be pushed or pulled. The front of the product allows easy access to the range of activities. This product is safe for toddlers and offers many different ways to encourage development. There are plenty of sights and sounds for a baby to take in.

At the bottom level are plastic spinning wheels in various colors. Toddlers will learn coordination by using their hands to turn the wheels. At the next level is a small set of five piano type keys to make music.

In the middle of the activity board are three spinning flowers and a farm activity center with opening and closing doors that makes animal sounds. The farm activity lets youngsters learn animal names and related sounds.

At the top of the panel are three color sorting holes for blocks of square, triangle, or round shapes. There is also a telephone at the top for pretend calls.

The product weighs around 7 pounds. It stands 18 inches high and is 14 inches wide. It is the ideal height for babies beginning to walk and the panel of activities can easily be reached from a sitting position. The item can be purchased online, it is priced reasonable and makes a practical gift for any baby. It is a good value compared to other educational toys and is priced to fit nearly any budget. The product is attractive with its bright colors that no baby will be able to resist.

The product is designed to pique the curiosity of toddlers and encourage development at the same time. It can easily be cleaned with mild soap and water due to its hard plastic surfaces. The item comes in a box and requires minimal assembly which can be done in a matter of minutes.

This is a toy that will be played with for a while, with its various activities. It is designed for both active play and stationary play. With its rounded edges and hard plastic the Vtech - sit-to-stand learning walker is both safe and able to withstand the rigors of toddlers at play.

Vtech Tote and Go Laptop for Preschool Techies

By Joshua J Anderson

Preschoolers today are learning through means that are far from what we used to do before the dawn of new technology. They are now more capable of reading, writing and counting all by themselves. This can be credited to the innovative devices that are aimed at providing educational games to "bribe" the kids into learning some basic subjects. The Vtech Tote and Go Laptop is one of those popular game devices that you can give to your child. Early learning is now made easy, thanks to the impressive Vtech Tote and Go Laptop.

This device aims to teach the preschoolers some basic learning processes through fun yet educational activities. It utilizes graphic images to engage the kids in the games, which are both informative and entertaining. There are 30 interactive games installed in the device. The kids may not have the slightest idea about what they are getting from it, but for the parents, this mini version of a laptop is an ideal learning tool for them.

The Vtech laptop is geared to educate kids on areas such as math, language and spelling.

To test the preschool's ability in numbers, there are games that are designed for counting and basic mathematical operations. As for the language subject, there is a game that will teach the child how to read and pronounce the words correctly. The words will make sounds so that he can easily identify them.

There are different colors of Vtech laptops available in the market. The structure of the Tote and Go Laptop was taken from the adult's version of portable computers. Since the kids are likely to explore stuffs that belong to their parents, this device is a good idea for their make-believe office play. It is your child's own laptop with all the features programmed only for him. However, this is not a rechargeable laptop just like the standard ones. It only uses three AA batteries in order to operate.

The keyboard, on the other hand, is nifty and they can actually tap on the letters for entering data such as their names and answers to game questions. Also included in the laptop package is a detachable mouse that can be used by both left and right-handed kids.

The Vtech Tote and Go Laptop is a lightweight device that can be carried along on trips and outdoor activities. With the kid's laptop on the go, parents can now manage to make them sit still while on the road. It comes with a sturdy handle that allows the kids to carry them along after use.

LEGO Spongebob Provides Creativity And Satisfaction To Children

By Joshua J Anderson

The LEGO Spongebob is definitely a great present for kids especially this Christmas season. When it comes to toys for boys and even girls, LEGO is considered to be one of the most popular choices by many. LEGO is a popular brand that creates toys made out of small bricks that can be interlocked and assembled to form into different types of objects such as houses, cars and buildings. Nowadays, there are already a lot of LEGO designs available in the market. One of these is the famous cartoon character Spongebob Squarepants.

But what are the different details about this Spongebob LEGO that makes it so special?

The Spongebob model of LEGO is not only fun to play but also very exciting and educational. It is very durable and suitable for kids. As we all know, LEGO has already created many models, and each of these are considered to be unique and original. The Spongebob design is a kids favorite since it allows them to join their favorite Spongebob characters such as Mr. Krabs, Plankton, Squidward and of course Spongebob in an adventure in the famous Krusty Krab restaurant. It contains detailed parts that are very durable and easy to use. Just like most Lego toys, this LEGO model can help expand effectively the creativity and imagination of the children. It also comes with an instruction guide so that kids can easily follow the steps in assembling the LEGO pieces. What is great about this toy is that it allows children to use their own designs and perspectives in creating objects that they want using the LEGO blocks. This sharpens their focus and their eye for detail.

Because of these amazing things about LEGO, a lot of kids are already asking this special toy to play with. It is worth every penny it costs and it can surely bring happiness to children, especially those who are avid fans of the cartoon series. If you are looking for an educational, fun and durable toy for your kid, Lego Spongebob is an excellent alternative. On top of that, you are bringing the whole Spongebob excitement to your home, and that is something that your little one will love. So what are we waiting for? It is time for us to buy our kids their own LEGO for Christmas. Without a doubt, the LEGO Spongebob will surely paint a grin on the face of every kid.

The Fun And Challenging Perplexus Maze Game

By Joshua J Anderson

The Perplexus maze game is a challenging 3D maze game where players must manipulate and maneuver a small metal ball through a series of plastic tracks and barriers. The transparent plastic ball can be flipped, twisted and tilted to coerce the ball through the tracks inside. Michael McGinnis, a schoolteacher and sculptor, created this highly addictive game. He created many designs and blueprints for the game before finally arriving at the current model. The current version is easy enough for children to play, but challenging enough to have adults hooked as well.

Why the Perplexus is the Perfect Gift?

This game is the perfect gift because it offers hours of fun and entertainment not only to your child but to the whole family. There is no set-up or assembly required, and the game does not use batteries or electricity to work. The Perplexus game is also highly educational, as it allows children to use their hand eye coordination and motor skills to work out the complicated pathways. This aids in children's development, and also improves concentration and focusing skills. In addition the ball is small and lightweight, making it easily transported, and it is quiet.

Perplexus Style Game Models

The Perplexus Game comes in three different models for convenience and choice.

Perplexus Original

This was the first Perplexus maze game to be released in the year 2000. It contains a transparent plastic ball with 100 colorful orange, yellow and green tracks, and purple barriers. This wildly popular 3D maze ball also comes with a plastic stand for easy storage.

Perplexus Epic

The Epic version takes the original concept and steps it up a notch. The slightly larger ball contains 125 complicated tracks with new routes, twists, and barriers for a greater challenge. The pleasing pale grey and turquoise color just adds to the appeal of this no mess, no noise, and no complicated set-up game.

Perplexus Rookie

This is the introductory model of this popular maze game. The brightly colored tracks are easy to maneuver, yet the game is still challenging to defeat. Once the game is defeated, a handy dome keeps the ball in place, for proof that the game was conquered. For those that want to start off slow, before upgrading to the more tricky versions, this is the perfect model.

It is easy to see why kids, teenagers and adults the world over are hooked on this fun, educational and challenging maze game.

The Award Winning Qwirkle Board Game

By Joshua J Anderson

The award winning Qwirkle board game is a fantastically addictive multiple player game for both kids and adults. It won the prestigious Mensa Best Mind Game Award in 2007 as well as the Major Fun Award and the Parents Choice Gold Award. This is a great gift for kids aged 6 and up, and even adults will love the thrilling strategies that can be employed.

How the Qwirkle Board Game Works

The game comes with 36 colorful wooden blocks, or tiles. Each tile has one of six shapes on its face, either a circle, square, diamond, clover, eight-point star, or four-point star. Each shape is also a different color of either red, green, purple, orange blue or yellow.

In the beginning of the game, each player takes six tile. This is their hand. The player with the most shapes and colors in common gets to lay their tiles first. Tiles are laid so that they create line with other tiles that have something in common, either shape or color.

Just like in Scrabble, players are trying to add on to other tiles to create a grid, and each line that is laid is awarded points. The player with the most points at the end is the winner. This game can be played with anywhere from two to four players, and an average game could take forty-five minutes or longer, depending on the strategies used, and speed of the players.

Why The Qwirkle Board Game is Great For Everyone

The Qwirkle board game is fun, exciting and challenging at the same time. Younger children will love it for its colorful shapes, and easy to learn rules. Adults will enjoy the plotting and scheming that can be employed to ensure winning strategies. For young ones that are having trouble with the rules, the game can be played with just three tiles per player to simplify things.

Another great thing about Qwirkle is that it is easy to store, and does not need many extra materials for game play. The tile set comes with a convenient cloth bag so that tiles do not get lost between playing times. All that is needed to play the game is a large surface like a floor or tabletop to place the tiles on. A pen and paper is also required for recording points.

For Christmas presents, this is the perfect gift for people of all ages, and the Qwirkle board game is a gift that the whole family can enjoy.
